MONDAY, APRIL 11
from 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Motherhouse, St. Joseph’s Hall

with Margaret Nacke, CSJ (Concordia)
Founder, Bakhita Initiative & Core Member,
U.S. Sisters Against Human Trafficking

Join us for an overview of human trafficking, the social ill that is being called “modern day slavery.” The program will consider who is involved and how one buys people as well as the powers for good currently working in this area and how we can join their good works.

*RSVP by April 4 to 314-481-8800 or motherhousersvp@csjsl.org

Sponsored by the CSJ Justice Office, St. Louis
